Lindsay Garnock | Managing Director

Knowledge

Lindsay Garnock, the Managing Director of Boyce Financial Services (BFS), has a strong rural background having spent his childhood on the family grazing property at Bombala in Southern NSW.

After finishing school Lindsay attended Marcus Oldham College in Geelong and was awarded a Diploma of Agribusiness with High Distinction in 1996 (Dux).

Lindsay commenced as an accountant with Boyce in July 1997. However, recognising a growing interest in helping families and businesses to set financial goals and invest for their futures, he embarked on a career in the financial advisory field in March 2001.

Lindsay gained a Diploma in Financial Planning and then undertook further studies to qualify as a Certified Financial Planner in November 2003. This is the highest professional designation awarded in the financial services industry.

Insight

Lindsay gained valuable insight into the financial challenges facing families and businesses in regional areas during his time with a large corporate financial advisory institution.

Postings in Cooma, Goulburn and Wagga Wagga enabled Lindsay to work with a diverse range of clients to provide strategic financial planning solutions tailored to individual circumstances.

Experience

Lindsay has more than 10 years' experience in the financial advisory industry and a genuine desire to help families and businesses to maximise their wealth potential. He is a Certified Financial Planner (CFP®) and a member of the Financial Planning Industry of Australia.

Lindsay is located in the head office of BFS in Wagga Wagga. He heads a team of advisers that extend across the Boyce office network in regional NSW.

Contact Lindsay on (02) 6925 9044 for an initial free, no-obligation consultation to discuss your financial needs.

Lindsay Garnock is a Director of Boyce Financial Services Pty Ltd as Trustee for Boyce Financial Services Unit Trust (AFSL 522265).
